Benchmark 2019: Enhancing Monetary and Financial Account Statistics

This short benchmark is based on the participants’ answers to a questionnaire for the IBFI-Banque de France seminar on Monetary and Financial Statistics. Graphs contained in this document are calculated from participants’ responses to a questionnaire circulated prior to the seminar.

Delay of publication of monetary data

- < 30 days (5)
- 30-90 days (4)
- 90-180 days (3)
- > 180 days (2)

Delay of transmission of financial account data

- < 30 days (5)
- 30-90 days (4)
- 90-180 days (3)
- > 180 days (2)

Frequency of financial account data

- Quaterly (5)
- Annual (4)
- < 6 months (3)
- 6-12 months (2)
- > 12 months (1)

Most important issues for monetary statistics (score 1-5)

- Methodology
- Currency Data
- Deposits
- Valuation effects
- Relations with national statistical institutes

Most important issues for monetary statistics (score 1-5)

- Better access to data
- Quality checks
- Relations with banks
- Adjustment between financial and non-financial account data
- Data transmission from Treasury

How to improve the use of monetary and financial account data (score 1-5)

- Better data explanation
- Data transmission from other financial institutions
- More resources
- New methodology
- Cross-border transactions

---

(21-24 May 2019, Paris)