Data for the current account of the euro area

In the 12 months to January 2024, the current account recorded a surplus of €294 billion (2.0% of euro area GDP), compared with a deficit of €91 billion (0.7% of euro area GDP) one year earlier. This development was mainly driven by a switch from a deficit (€84 billion) to a surplus (€317 billion) for goods, and, to a lesser extent, by a smaller deficit for secondary income (down from €168 billion to €159 billion). These developments were partly offset by reductions in the surpluses for primary income (down from €18 billion to €1 billion) and services (down from €144 billion to €135 billion).

Chart 3

Monetary presentation of the balance of payments

(EUR billions; 12-month cumulated data)

Source: ECB.

Notes: "MFI net external assets (enhanced)" incorporates an adjustment to the MFI net external assets (as reported in the consolidated MFI balance sheet items statistics) based on information on MFI long-term liabilities held by non-residents, available in b.o.p. statistics. B.o.p. transactions refer only to transactions of non-MFI residents of the euro area. Financial transactions are shown as liabilities net of assets. "Other" includes financial derivatives and statistical discrepancies.

The monetary presentation of the balance of payments (Chart 3) shows that the net external assets (enhanced) of euro area MFIs rose by €497 billion in the 12 months to January 2024. This increase was mainly driven by the current and capital accounts surplus and, to a lesser extent, euro area non-MFIs' net inflows in other investment, portfolio investment debt and equity. These developments were partly offset by euro area non-MFIs' net outflows in direct investment and other flows.

In January 2024 the Eurosystem's stock of reserve assets increased to €1,158.1 billion up from €1,147.6 billion in the previous month (Table 3). This increase was mostly driven by positive exchange rate changes (€5.2 billion) and positive price changes (€4.3 billion) and, to a lesser extent, by net acquisitions of assets (€0.8 billion).
