

Call for papers

Banque de France Conference

International Trade and Industrial Policy in a Changing World

Paris, 26 May, 2025

Hosted by the Bank of France

Organisers:

Nuno Coimbra (Banque de France)

Gabriel Smagghue (Banque de France)

The conference will take place in Paris on May 26, 2025. The conference will cover a variety of themes related to the new directions in academic research and their policy implications. These topics include (but are not limited to):

- Strategies for Economic Security: The Role of Modern Industrial Policy
- Navigating Trade Fragmentation in a Post-Globalized Era
- Trade Conflicts and Their Impact on Global Economics
- The Future of Global Value Chains Amid Economic Decoupling
- Protectionism: Political Drivers and Economic Consequences
- Green Industrial Policies and Trade
- Supply Chain Resilience in the Face of Pandemics and Conflicts
- The Role of Multilateral Institutions in a Fragmented Trade Landscape
- Economic Nationalism and Its Cross-Border Implications

Both theoretical and empirical papers are suited, and applications using euro area data are particularly welcome.

The deadline for submissions is March 16, 2025. Papers or extended abstracts can be submitted to the following email address: conf_int_trade_policy@banque-france.fr

Authors of successful submissions will be notified by March 31, 2025. Travel reimbursements in economy class will be available to participants from academic institutions (up to 450 Euros). Accommodation in Paris will also be available for up to 2 nights.